DJ UZO BIO:

As a DJ, producer, and cultural influencer, UZO has made a significant impact on the music and event industry. Born in the former Soviet Union and now based in the United States, Uzo's journey has been marked by a relentless pursuit of innovation and creativity. His unique background and experiences have honed his ability to connect with people from all walks of life and cultures, and his passion for storytelling has led him to become a master at creating unforgettable experiences through music, visuals and technology.

Uzo's career as a DJ has seen him share the stage with some of the biggest names in the industry, including Barbara Tucker, Ben Vedren, Blondish, Chez Damier, Chus, Doc Brown, Emmaculate, Francis Davila, Francis Mercier, Gene Farris, Housework, Jimpster, Julius the Mad Thinker, Kimonos, Malone, Mat.Joe, Offaiah, Osunlade, Paul Johnson, Roger Sanchez, Sofi Tukker, Terry Hunter, Todd Terry, Tom & Collins, and Tony Touch.

As a cultural influencer, Uzo has also been actively involved in the production of high-profile events, through his company UNREVEALED, where he has been able to bring together the best minds in the industry to create memorable experiences that have a lasting impact on culture. He has been able to innovate and push the boundaries of technology by incorporating web3 and NFT initiatives, making the events more engaging and interactive for the attendees.

Uzo's passion for community building and education has also led him to launch various non-profit organizations, where he has been able to empower and enrich people through art, music, and technology. He has been recognized for his contributions and impact on culture, receiving the President's Volunteer Service Award in 2017, one of the highest achievement awards a civilian may receive for their service and impact on the culture of the United States.

Uzo's vision is to continue to unite and educate cultures through innovative experiences and technology, and his mission is to empower people to reach their ultimate goals and potential through storytelling, creativity, and community building.
